

BILLY CAMPAGNOLI

WEB DEVELOPER-BACKEND

PROFILE

I am a young technology enthusiast, from an early age video games have caught my attention and over time the internet. As I grew older, every time I was very curious to know how the games and the pages I visited worked, that's when I got to know programming and became more and more fond of it. I recently finished a bootcamp at Academlo as a Full Stack Web Developer
